The Organizing Authority – DF Racing UK Class Association

This event and the following day's Round 16 (DF95) are part of the UK DF Association 2019 Travellers Series and are open to all overseas competitors. Some spare boats will be available for charter, please contact John Tushingam for details.

Rules – Racing will be governed by the rules as defined in the RRS, MYA Standard Sailing Instructions, the current HMS (or Sailwave scoring system) and the current DF65 Class Rules.

Closing Date: 1800 Sunday 22nd September. After that time late entries may be accepted only at the discretion of the Organizing Authority.

Racing – This is a full weekend racing, but each day is a separate event, either one or both days can be entered. (Saturday DF65, Sunday DF95)

Entry – Either through the MYA online entry system or by contacting John Tushingam by email at john@graphitecreative.co.uk with confirmation of sail number, home club, MYA number or confirmation of membership of your country's NCA, emergency contact details, radio frequency and which days you will be sailing.

Entry is open to UK and overseas competitors. Results will count towards the 2019 UK DF TT Series.

Additional competitor information – The competitor shall on registration at the event provide (or include with entry details) a telephone number for an emergency contact person.

Entry fee: 10 euro per day, payable at registration in Holland.

Boat Inspection - The Race Committee may at any time inspect any boat to ensure compliance with the Class Rules and random checks may be made throughout the event.
